

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

Condition of the Stock, Grain and Provision Markets.

HOG PRODUCT IN VERY GOOD DEMAND.

Corn and Oats in Good Demand—Orders for Shipment—Costing Prices. Stocks and Money.

Corn and Oats were in good demand all the lower cables and the absence of export buying our market opened at the lowest point of the day, advancing, with the exception of a few sharp reactions, to the close, which for December was 13¢ higher and nearly so higher on good samples of No. 1 red and spring wheat.

Cash corn and oats were in good demand from the start, and prices continued to advance, closing at the highest point of the day. A number of orders for shipment were unexecuted, buyers being unwilling to pay the advances until it was too late to execute orders.

Hog product of all kinds was in extra-narily good demand, but stocks are disappearing rapidly and demand seems to be on the increase.

It seems quite probable that short ribs will sell at 20¢ in the future.

Packers and others who are selling January pork appear to be liberal buyers of October and December.

Everything on the board closes with a favorable tendency for holders of the cash product.

Charters—Wheat, Chicago, 144,000 bushels, corn, 80,000 bushels, oats, 20,000 bushels.

Closing—Liverpool calls for spot wheat dull;

poor demand, 2d. lower. Futures steady;

good demand, prices 1½¢ lower.

corn, 725 cars; oats, 250 cars; hogs, 24,000.

Receipts—Today, wheat, 465 cars; corn, oats, cars; hogs, 20,000.

Following is the United Press report:

Excepting a temporary depression caused by a reported London failure, the wheat market closed firm on good buying by shorts and English and continental houses and a little higher. Receipts, 156 cars.

Corn—Corn under the evident influence of manipulation advanced in spite of the fine weather and heavy receipts and closed 1½¢ higher.

Oats—Oats sympathized with the more important cereals and closed 1½¢ higher.

Receipts, 205 cars.

Provisions—Provisions were firm, on a good demand from shorts and a reported heavy reduction in stocks of product in the West. Pork gained 1½¢; bacon, 1d.; lard, 5¢; oil and ribs, 5¢.
